Calling All Knitters

Calling all knitters, and knitter wannabees. We would like to provide a weekly time for folks to gather in the library to work on knitting or other needlework projects, socialize, and share advice and patterns. Participants would bring their own supplies and work on their projects. This would not be a knitting class: no instruction would be offered, just help from other knitters. We are planning an informal drop-in program. More later on day and time.

If you are interested in this idea, please call or stop by the library.
