Road Trip Picks for Kids

We find ourselves at that time of year when families take road trips. Certain complaints from the backseat, "Are we there yet? She's touching me! I'm bored/hungry/thirsty/have to go to the bathroom!" are inevitable. But a few books or audios checked out from the library may help stave off boredom.

How about books about family road trips? Road Trip, by Roger Eschbacher, Walk Two Moons, by Sharon Creech, Night Driving, by John Coy, and The Watson's Go To Birmingham, by Christopher Paul Curtis are good road trip books for kids.

Audio books are also a good choice for family entertainment on the road. Our library has tapes and CDs available. A few examples are the Harry Potter series, Eragon series, Hank the Cowdog series, Hardy Boys series, and a number of picture books on CD. Also available for check out for younger readers are picture book and CD sets. All library materials except movies check out for three weeks. Happy travels!
